What classes do you offer?

Young Musician Academy offers online classes in music, art, and academic tutoring for children. You can choose one subject or mix and match to fit your family.

What ages and levels do you teach?

We love working with young learners of all ages and skill levels, from curious beginners to students ready for the next challenge. Share your child's age on our interest form and we will help find the right fit.

Does my child need any experience?

Not at all! Beginners are warmly welcome. We meet each child where they are and build confidence one step at a time.

How do online classes work?

Classes are held live over video, so your child gets real interaction and personal encouragement from home. We will send you everything you need before the first class.

What do we need to get started?

A device with a camera and microphone, a reliable internet connection, and a quiet space to learn. Depending on the class, your child may also need an instrument or a few art supplies.

Are lessons one-on-one or in a group?

We offer both! One-on-one lessons give focused, personal attention, while small group classes add the fun of learning together. Not sure which is best? We are happy to help you decide.

How do I sign up?

Fill out our Family Interest Form to tell us about your child and what sounds fun. We will reach out to talk about classes, schedules, and next steps. The form is not a commitment, just a first step.

Can my children take classes together?

Yes! Brothers and sisters are welcome to join. Just list each child's name and age on the interest form.

What if we need to cancel or reschedule?

Please give at least 24 hours' notice and we will happily find a new time. If your child is sick, just let us know. Please see our Cancellation & Rescheduling Policy for details.

How much do classes cost?

Rates depend on the type of class and the format you choose. We will share all the details with you after you submit the interest form, so there are no surprises.
